

Why dilute a service? As it stands now the FCC has an advantage with the ARRL speaking for so many amateurs. I am greatly concerned that this proposal will split the service and the FCC will lose any advantage that it currently has. What is the matter with RM-10811?